Incident Summary: On Saturday, March 23, 2019, members from the Columbus Police Special Victims Bureau were working in conjunction with the Columbus Police Dive team on the Scioto River in the area of the Whittier Street peninsula.

Through the efforts of the detectives and dive team members, a body was recovered from the water. The Franklin County coroner's office was called in to work with the detectives.

Additional information will be available pending the outcome of the Coroner's investigation and identification.

###

UPDATE: The body that was recovered on Saturday, March 23, 2019 has been positively identified as Amber Evans. The family has been notified.

While this is not the outcome we had hoped for, we understand this brings closure for the family, and our thoughts and prayers go out to them.
